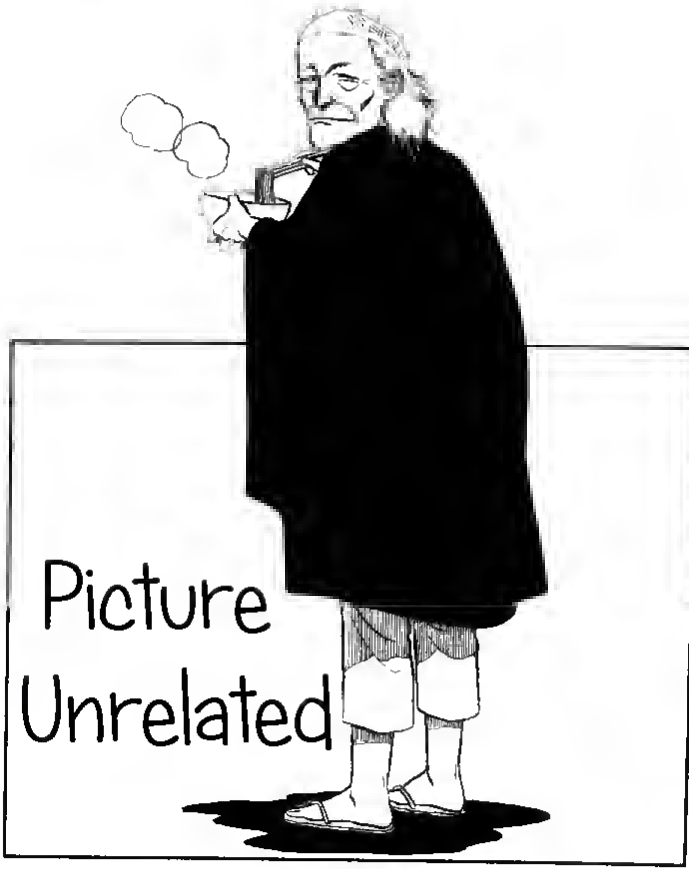
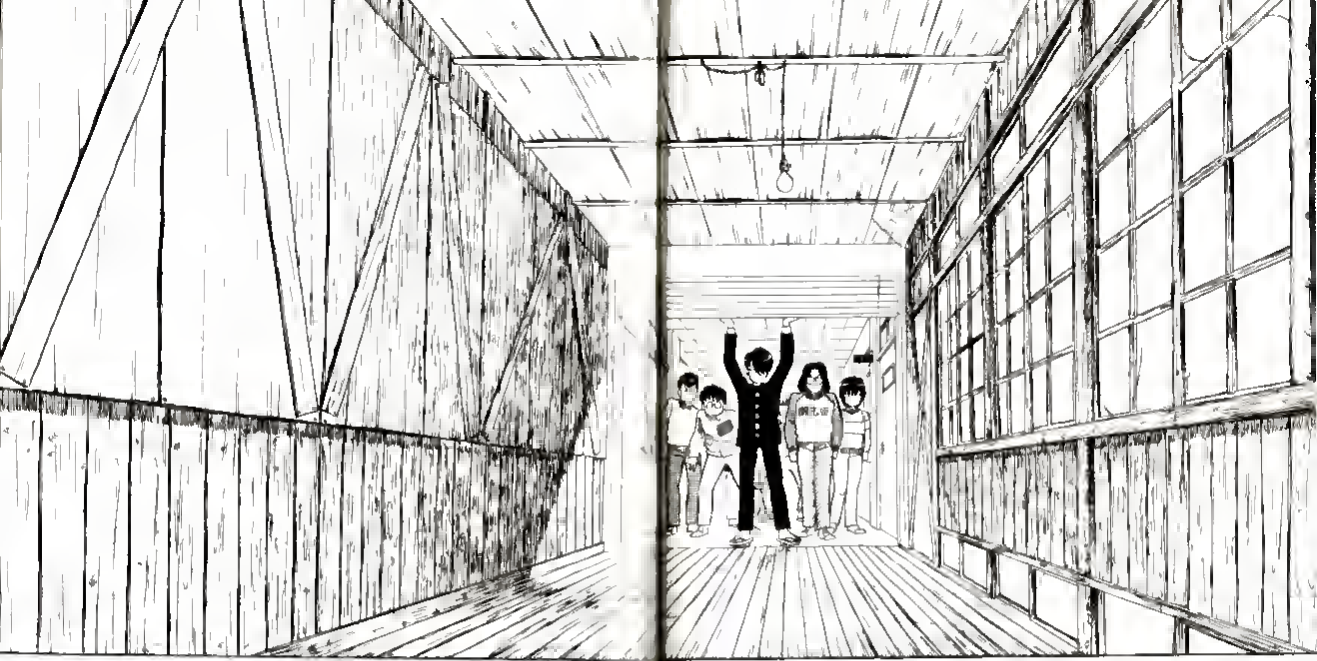
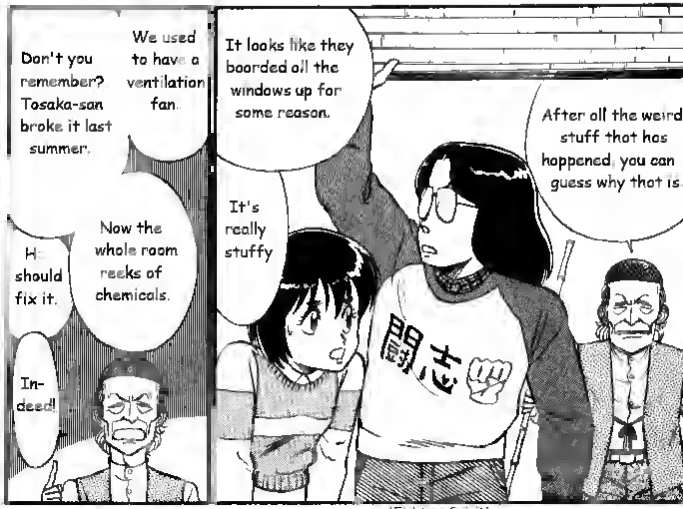
Continuing Memories





20 years ago, no one could bring themselves to tear it down, so it was left untouched.
Correct.

This wooden schoolhouse is completely encased by the new building.
What is this!?



Don't you remember? Tosaka-san broke it last summer.
We used to have a ventilation fan.
Now the whole room reeks of chemicals.
H- should fix it.
In-deed!
It looks like they boarded all the windows up for some reason.
It's really stuffy
After all the weird stuff that has happened, you can guess why that is.

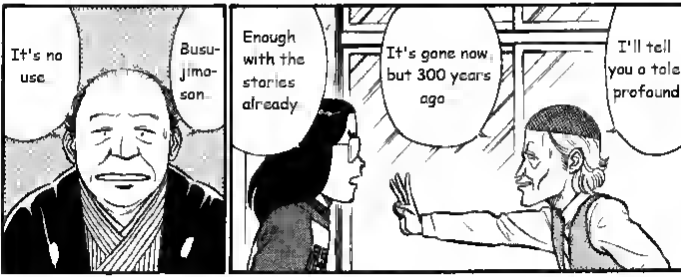
Do you know why these rooms were left forbidden and abandoned?
Though we can't open the hall windows for ventilation
The classrooms would make excellent dark-rooms—



You can't want them to come in to this place either!
Principal sir!
This group of individuals will not be swayed no matter how many tales you tell.
That's right!
My heart is moved with pity for them.
Be that as it may

Optics Club Forbidden
Coming from you, it sounds worse
We're pitiful!
You see, they were driven out of their clubroom We can't have them becoming wandering drifters

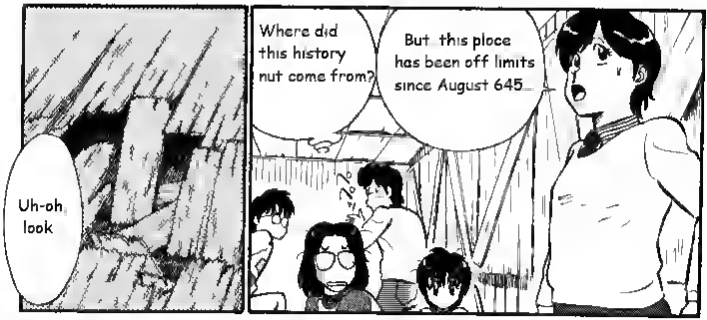
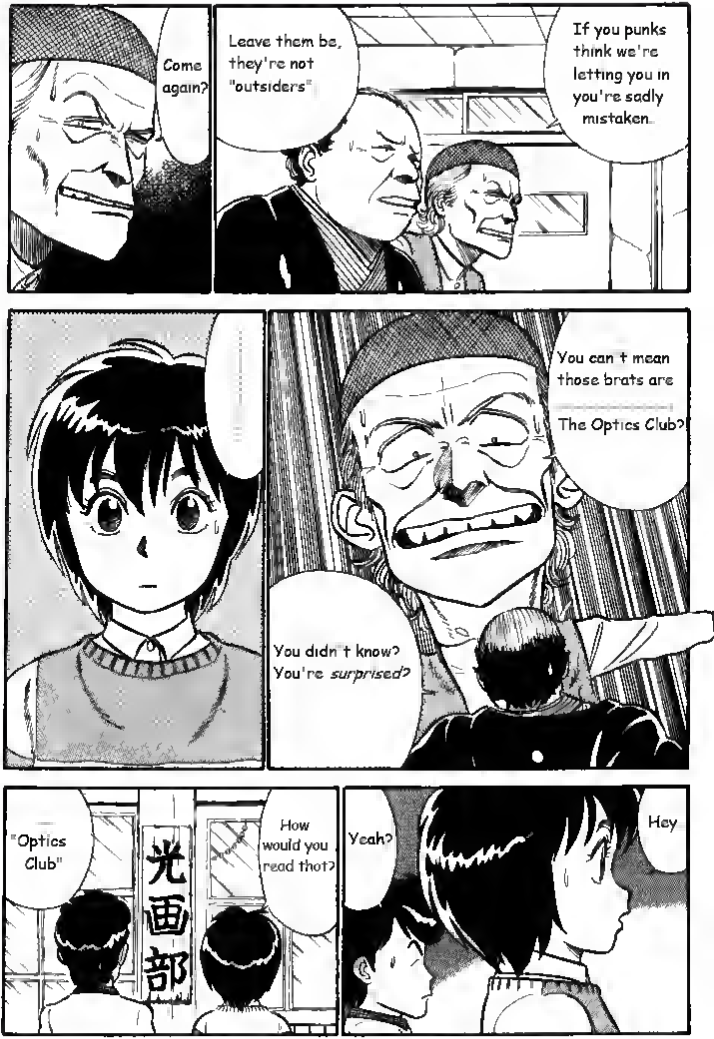
Starting today, this place is going to be the Optics Club's new room!
What are you doing in a place like this?

I looked all over the school for you guys.

What??



Uh-oh, look
Where did this history nut come from?
But this place has been off limits since August 645...
SFX: Brushing hands



Come again?
Leave them be, they're not "outsiders"
If you punks think we're letting you in you're sadly mistaken.
You can't mean those brats are
The Optics Club?
You didn't know? You're surprised?
"Optics Club"

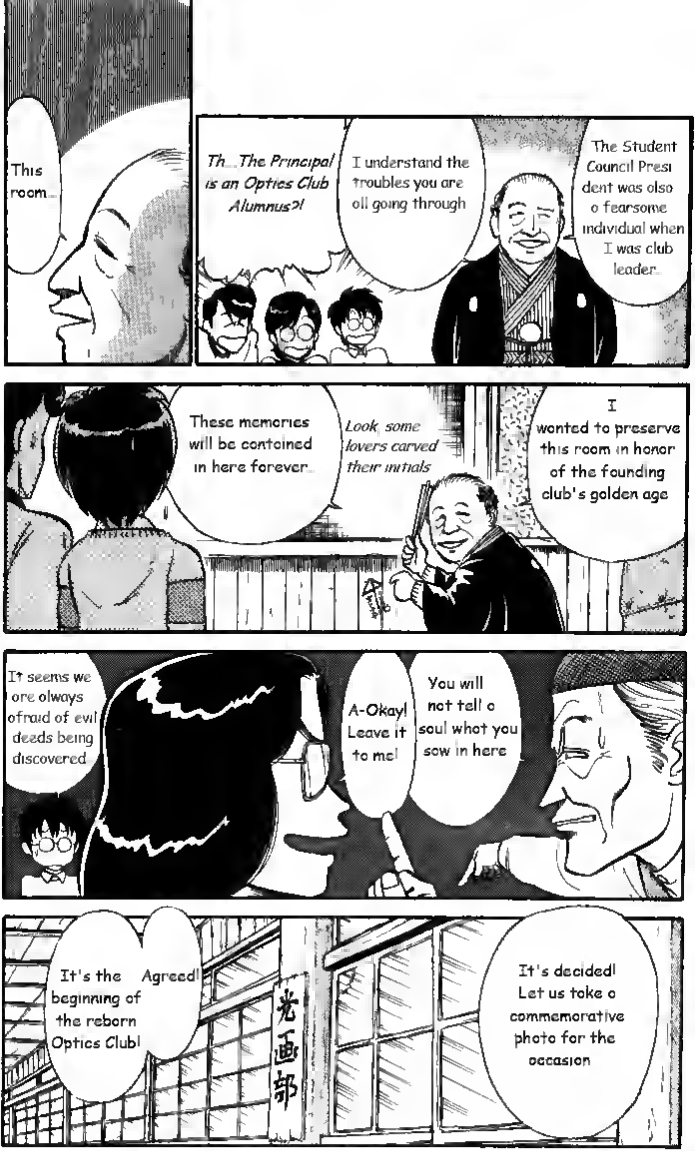
What does this all mean...
What is this?!
...Old gym equipment?
Simple

They wouldn't store athletic equipment in here
Think about it
光画部
That can only mean one thing...
What kinds of things could the Optics Club do in this clubroom?
So you mean to say...
War spoils?
All of this is the old club's war spoils
To sum it up...
I'm sure all of this was "found"
In other words these are trophies stolen from the Athletic Club

That...
WA HA HA HA
The Optics Club has been the same since the very start.
Busujima-san! Senior Busujima!
You won't live much longer if you don't get out.
THAT'S THE LAST STRAW.
Let our trampled-upon juniors use the room?
Why don't we let it go?
Wha're you calling mom?
You're my mother, aren't you?
So, that means you are...
Juniors?



This room...
Th...The Principal is an Optics Club Alumnus?!
I understand the troubles you are all going through
The Student Council President was also a fearsome individual when I was club leader...
These memories will be contained in here forever...
Look, some lovers carved their initials
I wanted to preserve this room in honor of the founding club's golden age
It seems we are always afraid of evil deeds being discovered
A-Okay! Leave it to me!
You will not tell a soul what you saw in here
It's the beginning of the reborn Optics Club!
Agreed!
光画部
It's decided! Let us take a commemorative photo for the occasion

Look on your right .....

Thus, the plot thickens
